

1b The Coach House, Dunstall Road, Barton under Needwood, DE13 8AX

Offered with no upward chain is this contemporary ground floor apartment, benefitting from a high standard of finish, open plan interiors and a desirable position in the heart of Barton under Needwood. Being an ideal downsizer, first time buy or investment property, this superb ground floor home enjoys a private entrance and comprises briefly entrance hall, modern kitchen, open plan living and dining room, an oversized double bedroom and a modern shower room. Outside, the apartment benefits from a landscaped walled patio garden shared with the two additional apartments, and allocated parking. The apartment is serviced by mains gas central heating and full double glazing with recently refitted windows to the front aspect, and features LED lighting and oak doors throughout.

Converted in 2020, The Coach House is a bespoke collection of individually designed apartments set in the heart of Barton under Needwood. The apartments are set within a character property which has been renovated and remodelled to a high standard to create three self-contained apartments sharing a walled landscaped garden.

The village offers a superb array of facilities on the apartment's doorstep, with pubs, gift shops, a Co-Op general store, post office and village hall all centred around the traditional high street. There are rural walks available nearby across the Dunstall Estate and the village offers plenty of sporting clubs and social groups including a ramblers club and WI. Well placed for access to the A38, local towns and cities within easy reach include Burton on Trent, Lichfield, Derby and Birmingham. Lichfield also provides direct rail links to London in 80 minutes and there is a public bus route that runs regularly through the village. The International airports of Birmingham and East Midlands are also within an easy drive.
