A STAFFORDSHIRE VILLAGE OF PRIDE, HISTORY & COMMUNITY

The historic village of Abbots Bromley, best known for its annual Horn Dance Festival, is a thriving village offering a much sought after rural lifestyle for families and couples alike, centred around a picture-postcard main street lined with character cottages and handsome Georgian residences. The village is home to a sports club, general store, a highly regarded primary school, traditional pubs, a bistro, coffee shop, doctors, church and village hall. The village has also formerly been named as one of the Top 12 Places to Live in the Midlands by the Sunday Times.

This stunningly popular village is renowned for being the location of the Pagan Horn Dance Festival which takes place in September each year. This medieval event is seen to date back to 1500s and sees participants and onlookers take part in a musical procession from the village itself, through the countryside and up to the Blithfield Hall where the event finishes with participants dancing on the grove which overlooks Blithfield Reservoir.

additional cafes and a bistro in the market square, and the village is ideal for an afternoon of leisurely shopping and wandering along the pretty streets.

For outdoor pursuits, there are plenty of local walks, sailing clubs and fishing spots as well as a number of equestrian centres include Eland Lodge. The scenic Blithfield Reservoir lies just minutes drive away and is home to many rural walks, a sailing club and fishing spots. Slightly further afield is Cannock Chase, an designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty can be reached within a 10 minute drive.

For additional shopping facilities, Rugeley and Uttoxeter can both be reached easily and offer a range of supermarkets, shopping centres and amenities. Uttoxeter is home to the famed Uttoxeter Racecourse, one of the leading National Hunt tracks in the Midlands.

The village caters well to everyday life, enjoying an excellent array of shops, leisure facilities and amenities within the centre. There are three pubs, The Coach & Horses, The Crown and The Goats Head, and the Infiniti restaurant provides variety in the way of Indian fine dining. There are

The village is ideally located for commuters, having the A38, A50 and M6 Toll within easy reach. Regular rail links are available from Rugeley and Lichfield to Birmingham and London and a public bus route runs through the village.
