

Waters Edge, 8 The Osiers, Elford, B79 9DG

 Parker
Hall

Overlooking serene river and countryside views is this exceptional detached village home, benefitting from beautifully refurbished interiors, three double bedrooms (with potential to convert back into four) and a generous plot including a detached double garage and delightful wrap around gardens. Enjoying a peaceful setting within this premier village, Waters Edge has been remodelled to a superb standard and offers versatile living accommodation, generously proportioned bedrooms and a useful outside space including a double garage/studio and summer house. The interiors comprise briefly; porch leading into a central reception hall with oak and glass staircase, three reception rooms, bespoke breakfast kitchen, utility and cloakroom, with three bedrooms to the first floor serviced by a family bathroom and master en suite. The bedrooms each benefit from fitted wardrobes, and the luxurious master suite (formerly two bedrooms) features a Juliette balcony highlighting the stunning riverside views. Outside, Waters Edge enjoys a delightful setting towards the end of this private lane, having parking for a number of vehicles and a detached double garage with electric entrance door to the front. The garage has been converted into a fabulous dance studio, and corner plot gardens extend to the side and rear of the property housing a summer house and garden room offering home office/entertaining space as well as useful exterior storage. The property is serviced by oil central heating and double glazed windows.

Waterside lies on a secluded private lane in the picturesque and historic village of Elford, a tranquil and secluded cul de sac lined with mature trees and similar character homes. This desirable cottage lies within the Conservation Area. The Village is a thriving community serviced by amenities including cricket and football clubs, children's playground, the Crown public house, a village hall, the ancient St Peter's Church and the highly regarded Howard Primary School. The community funded Elford Hall Gardens are a short walk from the property and centre around an historic two and a half acre walled garden where vegetable plots are maintained by village residents. The village is set within picturesque Staffordshire countryside mid-way between Tamworth, with its range of shops and amenities such as Ventura Retail Park and the Snow Dome Leisure Centre, and the Cathedral City of Lichfield, with its regular public train and bus links to various destinations. Elford is just over 20 miles from Birmingham and its International Airport. London can be reached from rail stations in Lichfield and Tamworth in around 80 minutes.
