Gospel Oak House

Thorney Lanes Newborough Staffordshire

Set within established $\frac{3}{4}$ acre grounds and being offered with no upward chain is Gospel Oak House, an exceptional detached family residence overlooking breathtaking Staffordshire countryside views. Residing in a most tranquil setting bordering the premier villages of Newborough and Hoar Cross, Gospel Oak House offers generously extended interiors ideal to suit a growing family, alongside potential to extend/remodel further if desired. Five good sized bedrooms are serviced by a modernised en suite and family bathroom, with ample living accommodation including two reception rooms plus a fabulous family room offering ideal potential for conversion into an annexe, games room or home office.

An impressive galleried reception hall leads into two spacious reception rooms and the modernised breakfast kitchen, all of which enjoy idyllic views over the gardens and countryside beyond. From the kitchen there is a large inner hallway having access into a utility, cloakroom and a boot room which offers a secondary entrance to the front, with stairs also rising to a versatile fifth bedroom/home office. Double doors open into a versatile family room where twin sets of double doors overlook idyllic views to the rear.

To the first floor there are four excellent double bedrooms sharing use of the family bathroom, with the master also having a private en suite and a balcony highlighting exceptional countryside views.

A pillared entrance leads up to the property where there is ample parking, and gardens extend to the side and rear of Gospel Oak House enjoying an excellent degree of privacy and being a sunny space to enjoy the tranquil setting.

Newborough is a premier village nestled within stunning Staffordshire countryside, renowned for its idyllic surroundings and thriving community. The village centre is home to The Old Bakers Cottage Tearooms, the Red Lion pub, Riverside Park play area, the Meynall cricket ground and a stunning 14th Century church, with further everyday amenities easily accessible in surrounding villages including Abbots Bromley and Yoxall.

The village neighbours the rural hamlet of Hoar Cross, offering luxurious amenities including Hoar Cross Hall Hotel and Day Spa and the Deer Park Farmshop and Café, and the FA's St Georges Park in Needwood offers an on-site restaurant, spa and a members only gym.

For outdoor pursuits, the area is renowned for picturesque walks and cycling, being ideally positioned alongside areas of the National Forest. There are a number of local equestrian centres including Eland Lodge and Marchington Field, and Cannock Chase lies around 10 miles from the property.

The village is served by Ofsted 'Outstanding' rated schools including the Newborough Church of England Primary School which feeds into John Taylor High in Barton under Needwood. There are also an array of excellent private schools in the area including Repton School, Lichfield Cathedral and Denstone College, all of which can be reached in a short drive.

A location well suited to commuters, Newborough is well placed for access to the A515, A38 and A50, two stations in Lichfield offer direct rail links to Birmingham and London (in 80 minutes) and the International airports of East Midlands, Birmingham and Manchester are all within an easy drive.
